MAVAHI

Published by the SENIOR CLASS...

MARTINSVILLE HIGH SCHOOL

At the lower right is a side view of the gymnasium.

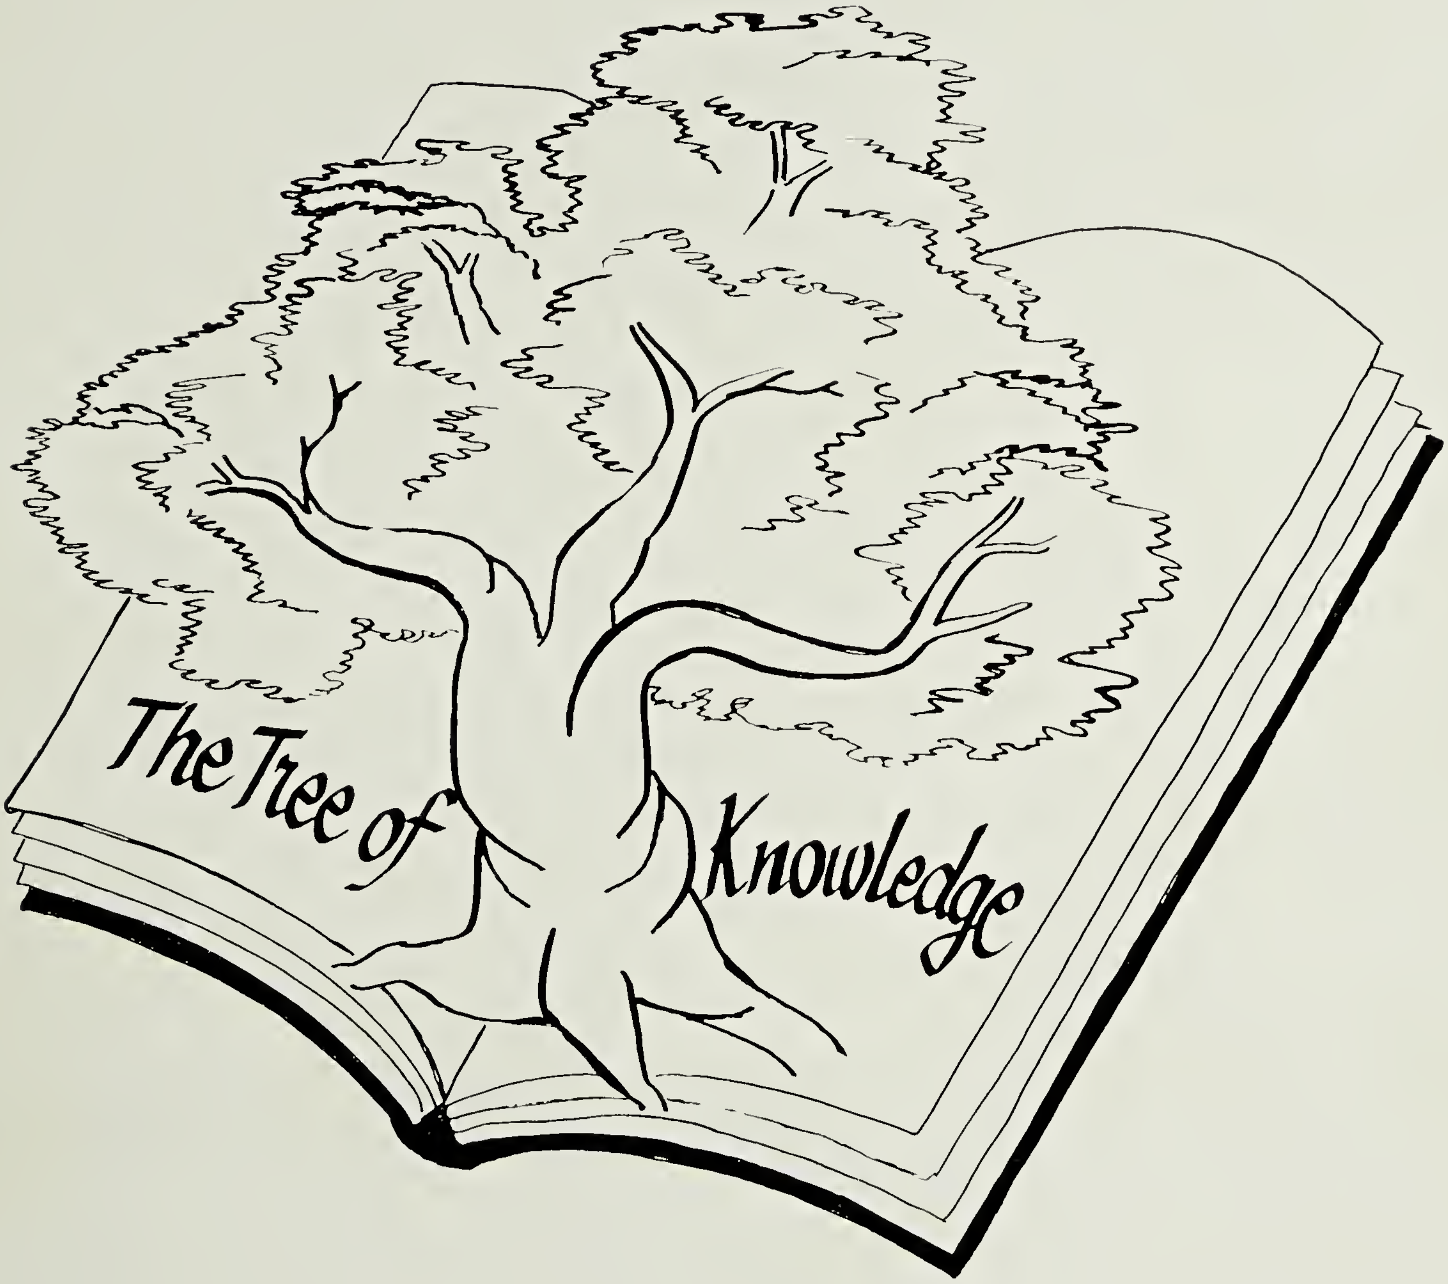
Awareness of the untiring efforts of this beloved friend of Mavahi students prompts us to recognize one who plays a vital part in the growth of our "Tree of Knowledge."

For always having a few extra minutes after school to talk, for having met new seniors for three years with a smile and a helpful word, for guiding the Omega Tri-Hi-Y with patience and foresight, for supervising and encouraging the MAVAHI staff, we, the Senior Class of Martinsville High School, dedicate the 1956 MAVAHI to Mrs. Paul G. Barnett.

Mrs. Barnett arranges Ralph, Virginia Ann, Lucy, and Shirley for a picture.

DEDICATION

Mavahi Has Many Branches . . .



Any school is, in a sense, a tree of knowledge, imparting to each young leaf understanding and pleasure during its years of growth there. Since the first flourishing of this "Tree of Knowledge", Mavahi has seen many leaves bud, develop, and fall off. On the first page we have shown the very center of the trunk, the administration, and the successive rings of students and activities. From this core the tree branches out into a more detailed picture of administration, classes, clubs, features, and athletics, which we shall reveal in this book—the Mavahi "Tree of Knowledge".

The base of Mavahi's "Tree of Knowledge" includes the School Board, the Supervisors, and the officials of the high school.

Chairman of the school board, Mr. Frank Lacy, is assisted by the school board members: Mr. C. C. Broun; Mr. J. L. Gregory; Dr. F. B. Teague; Mr. J. R. English; Mrs. Lucy Woody, Clerk of the school board; and by Mr. M. L. Carper, Superintendent.

The Supervisors are Mr. C. W. Watkins, Assistant Superintendent and Director of Instruction; Mr. William Kirk, Supervisor of Building and Grounds; Mr. Morris Epps, General Supervisor and Director of Adult Education; and Mr. William Cochran, Visiting Teacher.

Co-operating with Mr. John D. Richmond, Principal of Martinsville High School, are Mr. W. K. Putney and Mr. T. A. Hartley, as Assistant Principals; and Miss Laura Kreger, Director of Guidance.

These officials and teachers, in their desire to continually better the educational facilities of Mavahi, try to use sound judgement in advising each student in building character and in academic work. From this nucleus stem the high standards which the students of Mavahi strive to attain.

As the Senior Class of 1956 meets for its proposed reunion in ten years, the members of this class will have many events to remember.

During the sophomore year, the Bulldog Steamroller rolled away with top honors in the class homecoming float contest. The junior year was highlighted by many activities: the Junior Play, "Cheaper by the Dozen," and the annual Junior-Senior Prom.

In their last year at M. H. S., they presented the class play, "Belles on Their Toes." Much of the success of the Class of '56 can be attributed to its sponsors: Miss Mary Lou Joyce, Chairman; Mrs. Paul Barnett; Miss Joanne Stevens; Miss Virginia Siler; Mr. William Hoskins; Mr. Charles Keyser; and officers: Jack Chaffin, president; Shirley Key, vice-president; Lucy Collins; Secretary; and Letitia Hurd, treasurer.

Many years after they have drifted away from this "Tree of Knowledge," they will not only remember these outstanding events and those things they achieved together as a class, but each senior takes with him a memory of his own numerous experiences during the five years that he belonged to Mavahi.

JUNIOR CLASS

The members of the class of 1957 began their Junior year by electing officers. Lucy Stephens served the class as president, with Patsy Spencer, vice president; Genie Spencer, secretary; and Lloyd Lawrence, treasurer, assisting. For the home-coming parade, the juniors built a giant robot for their float, with the theme, "Junior Spirit Moves Mary on to Victory." Next on the agenda for the class was the Junior Play, "Annie Get Your Gun."

On May 18th, the seniors were the guests of the juniors at the Junior-Senior Prom. Other high moments for the juniors came when they received their class rings, and when they marched down the aisle during the Senior Assembly program to take, officially, the senior seats.

The MAVAHI Staff

The literary staff began making plans for the 1956 MAVAHI during the summer. Mrs. Barnett, sponsor, met with the co-editors, Miriam Rothwell and Beryl Martin, and other available staff members to outline the theme and new ideas for picture arrangements.

With the starting of the school year, the dummy was planned and arrangements for picture schedules were made. When the prints were returned, the section editors began labeling and identifying them.

In top picture the artists of the annual, Anna Jirgens and Gerlene Lawless, discuss with Mrs. Barnett plans for division pages.

The MAVAHI business staff, headed by Ronnie Hilbert, business manager; Shirley Key, assistant business manager; and Buck Carter, circulation manager, had charge of the financing and distribution of the 1956 MAVAHI.

The annual was financed by ads sold to local merchants and by subscriptions for annuals from M. H. S. students.

Members of the business staff gained experience in finance, proofreading and public relations in the publishing of the MAVAHI.

The Barker reports the news . . .

The twenty-three staff members of the Barker have worked together in putting out the school newspaper during this past school year. Workers such as Esther Grogan, Jack Chaffin, and Bill Craig, shown in the middle picture folding the newspapers, and Sallie Belle Whitener, Lois Chapman, and Boo Hooker, shown in the bottom picture typing stories, worked to meet the monthly deadline.

The staff members were chosen by the co-editors, Ann Minter and Frances Morris (top picture). These members were from the junior and senior classes, assisted by a few underclassmen trainees.

Under the guidance of Mrs. Dave Russell, the staff has worked to print a paper containing news and views of life at Mavahi and to receive recognition from the S.I.P.A.

The aim of the Student Council is to promote better student-faculty understanding. At its regular meetings in the cafeteria, typified in bottom picture, the council organized major activities, such as the Homecoming and White Christmas programs.

The council members and officers, aided by Miss Sarah Enos, sponsor, initiated this year's activities with a demonstration meeting in assembly, indicated in top picture. The council kept the school scrapbook, took charge of the point system, and sent representatives to the district and state S.C.A. conventions. Shown in middle picture, the representatives were: (first row) Bennie Eanes, president; Ann McDonald, treasurer; Jane Barker, secretary; Mary Lou Troxler. (second row) Janice Hauger, Lucy Stephens, second vice-president; Ann Minter. (third row) Jimmy Lancaster.

The Christian Organizations

Alpha Tri-Hi-Y

The Alpha Tri-Hi-Y officers and sponsors, shown at their induction service, were Miss Elizabeth Wilson, sponsor; Brenda Dillon, president; Ruthie Drewrey, vice president; Jane Watts, secretary; Sue Turner, chaplain; Mary Frances Thompson, treasurer; Charlotte Hudson, corresponding secretary; Betsy Carper, program chairman; and Miss Evelyn Hawks, sponsor.

The club members sold Homecoming pompons and collected money for the Community Chest. At Christmas, the girls filled baskets for needy families with presents which they brought to a drop-in party.

Omega Tri-Hi-Y

This year the Omega Tri-Hi-Y, led by Letitia Hurd, 1st vice president; Josephine Barker, recording secretary; Beverley Altschull, treasurer; Virginia Ann Joyce, 2nd vice president; Jane Geoghegan, chaplain; Ann MacDonald, corresponding secretary; Margaret Craig, president; and sponsored by Miss Sarah Enos and Mrs. Paul Barnett, has attempted to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character.

At the left, the officers (in the order given above) discuss the possibility with Mr. William E. Hansen, field secretary of the YWCA in Virginia—which became a reality—of organizing a Junior Tri-Hi-Y for eighth grade girls.

Two members brought individual honors to the club. Ann Minter was elected Speaker of the House for the Model General Assembly, and Lucy Stephens was elected president of the district for the coming year.

Boys' Hi-Y

The Boys' Hi-Y sent delegates to the district Hi-Y conference and worked with the other Hi-Y clubs on the Peanuts-for-Polio campaign. Rip Moser, president (seated); Freddie Compton, treasurer; Buck Carter, vice president; Mr. Hoskins, sponsor; G. W. Lester, secretary; and Carter Smith, chaplain, shown in picture, have guided the service projects of their club. They worked with the Student Council in the White Christmas assembly.

The Library Club is composed of girls from the ninth through the twelfth grades. These girls spend an hour or more every week in the library performing the tasks shown in above pictures, such as checking the attendance rolls from the study halls, filing cards, and putting the books in order on the shelves.

This year, the Library Club has been under the leadership of Frances Hardy, president; Jean Wilson, vice-president; Julia Krupski, secretary; Linda Hardy, treasurer; Barbara Campbell, program chairman; and Sybil Carroll, social chairman. The sponsors were Miss Martha Anthony and Miss Felsie Riddle.

Each year at Christmas the members of the Library Club take a basket of food to a shut-in person.

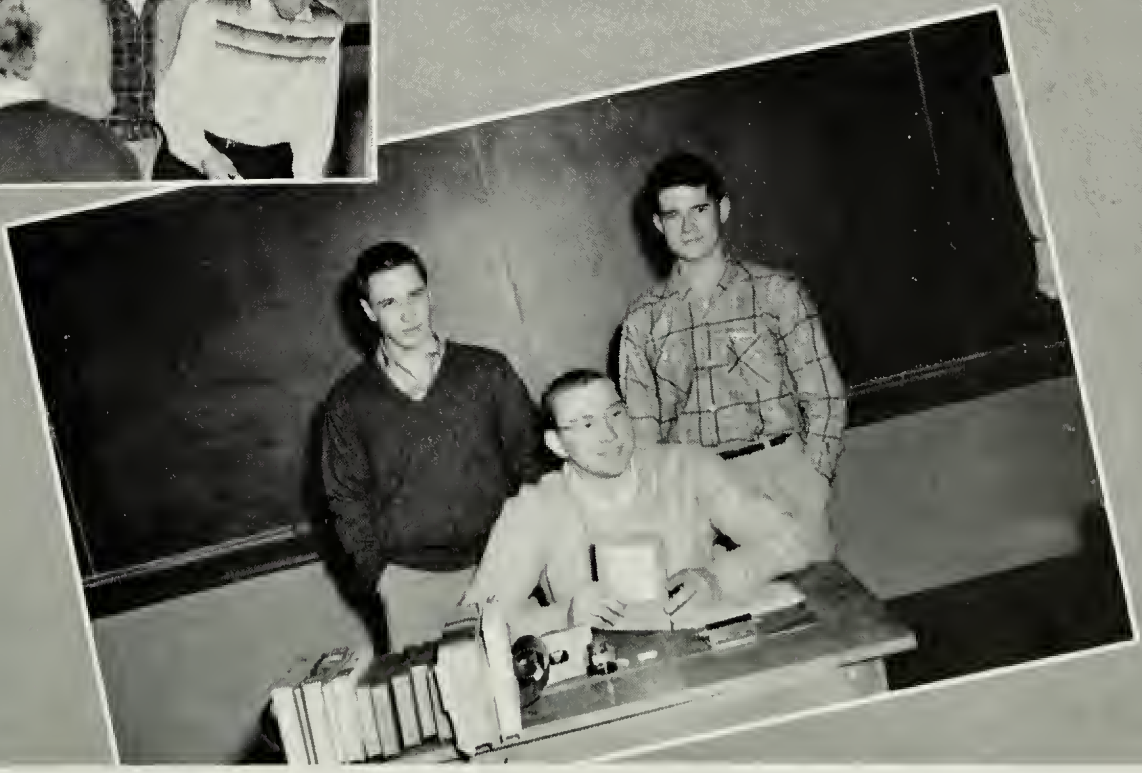
This summer the Key Club aided the Kiwanis Club in cleaning up Lee Ford Camp for underprivileged children. The boys set up a miniature putting green at the Henry County Exposition.



The Language Clubs . . .

Latin Club

The Latin Club, under the supervision of Miss Nancy Leslie, splits into two separate clubs each year. The meetings are held during class time. The purpose of the Latin Club is to promote through scheduled discussions and presentations, a better understanding of the Roman way of life and the relationship between English and Latin.

French Club

The purpose of the French Club meetings is to allow students to have a part in presenting French to their classmates.

Some activities were a panel quiz show, scrabble played in French, thumbnail biographies of famous Frenchmen, and a school assembly in March. The French I Club was host at an April dance given for French II members.

Officers were Jean Ramsey, vice president; Patsy Spencer, treasurer; Jane Geoghegan, president; Betty Lou Goldstein, secretary.

Dramatists strive to excel.

In the picture at top right, Judd gives a financial report to several Thespians.
In the bottom picture, the would-be Thespians are looking typically undramatic.

The Dramatics Club's project this year was to give a series of one-act plays, instead of a single three-act play. This was done to give more members a chance to work backstage with the sets and lights, or play in a role on stage. Newcomers to the club learned that producing a play is hard work, but most were rewarded by membership in the Thespians.

Junior and senior members of the Diversified Occupations Club are required to work an average of fifteen hours a week for training in industry and in organization.

This year the group and their sponsor, Mr. Tom Burnette, went to district meetings and to the State Convention in Roanoke.

Arts and Crafts Club

Industry in its many phases was the interest of the boys in the Arts and Crafts Club this year.

Under the guidance of Mr. Chester Lane, Mr. John Lilly, Mr. Owen Lawson, and officers (left) Leon Richardson, Frank Moore, Phil Mays, Billy Moore, G. W. Lester, the club has undertaken many projects—the building of record carriers, helping build the merchants' Christmas Floats, and selling door mirrors. These projects made the club financially independent of concession money.

The earnings they received are used for annual club trips.

Under the leadership of Nancy Rizer, president; Iris Barnes, vice-president; Esther Grogan, secretary; Mary Ellen Gregory, treasurer; and the sponsors, Miss Wilma Allen and Miss Anne Lumsden, the Future Business Leaders of America have practiced business leadership training.

Through such projects as maintaining fresh ideas on the bulletin boards, preparing needed essentials for a family at Thanksgiving, participating in the school's White Christmas program, demonstrating modern business machines, and doing typing and clerical work for other organizations in school, the FBLA has prepared students for admittance into the business world.

The girls enrolled as members of the Future Homemakers of America at Mavahi are affiliated with the national organization of pupils studying Homemaking in high school.

During the year, projects have included canvassing blood donors for the Red Cross, fixing Thanksgiving baskets for a needy family, and bringing extra gifts for the White Christmas program and for teenage girls in the orphanage at Salem, Virginia.

Every spring the F. H. A. sponsors a formal dance for members and their guests. F. H. A. programs at periodic meetings have contained such topics as Parlimentary procedure, New Year's Resolutions, group recreation, and seasonal and spiritual inspiration. Each member must serve on a bulletin board committee for a month and a standing committee, as well as bake a product for one of two bake sales.

The sponsors, teachers in the Science Department, were Mr. H. Felix Sanders, Miss Virginia Siler, and Mr. Harold Estep.

Guest speakers from various colleges in surrounding areas gave talks to the club concerning biology, physics, and psychology. The club also sponsored study classes in rescue work, nursing and life-saving.

This year, the club, striving to increase an understanding of science, traveled to the Oak Ridge Museum of Atomic Energy in Oak Ridge, Tennessee.

For the first time this year, a feature honoring notable clubs in Martinsville High School is introduced in the Mavahi.

The purpose of this page is to acknowledge outstanding leadership executed by deserving clubs.

Each club was asked to submit an application, stating the reasons that it should be considered for this honor. A committee composed of several annual staff members examined these applications, and selected the following two organizations.

F. L. B. A.

One of the outstanding clubs this year has been the Future Business Leaders of America. The objectives of F. B. L. A. are to promote more creative leadership in home, community, school, and family.

This club has met the needs of business students in the high school by giving them an opportunity to develop business knowledge and skills, leadership qualities, and social skills.

Last June the Martinsville F. B. L. A. was recognized at the National Convention as a gold seal honor chapter for its activities and work. Only three F. B. L. A. chapters in the State of Virginia received this recognition.

By keeping a business bulletin board, preparing Thanksgiving baskets of food for needy families, demonstrating business machines at the P. T. A. Fair, and doing clerical work in school and business organizations, the members of this club have aided not only themselves, but others as well. Business has become an important part of the school curriculum as the members of F. B. L. A. introduce new and better ideas of working and living.

ALPHA HI-Y

The induction of forty-five Sophomore and Freshman girls touched off a series of services helpful not only to the members, officers, and sponsors, but also the recipients of these services.

Because of money-making projects, the sale of pompons during Homecoming and bake sale in January, the Alpha Hi-Y girls were able to adopt a needy family and supply it with essential food and clothes during the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays.

Through voluntary efforts for the Community Chest fund and the Peanuts-for-Polio drive, the members have enlivened their goal to "create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school and community, high standards of Christian character."

Homecoming Accents Football Season

Homecoming—a word that means so many different things to each M. H. S. student—a spicy smelling chrysanthemum corsage entwined with maroon and gray ribbons. cold feet and a frosty nose, excitement and expectation. To the alumni, it means a time of return; to the seniors, the last time that they cheer for their team as members of their school.

To twelve senior boys on the football team, the evening of November 18, 1955 meant the last time they would wear the white and maroon jerseys. On the upper left, coming through the arch for the last time, is Ronnie Hilbert. Tradition was carried out once more as the senior players were introduced with their parents to the spectators before the game.

The homecoming game had an extra special meaning this year . . . undefeated M. H. S. emerged as "Champion of District VI". From the starting whistle to the end of the game, the Bulldogs led all the way, handing the William Byrd Terriers a 19-0 Defeat.

Foremost in the minds of nearly all Mavahi students at homecoming time are the two questions: "Who will be chosen homecoming queen?" and "What class will win the float contest?"

The first question was answered in the customary pep-rally assembly some six hours before the game. On the middle left is Miss Donna Jean Witt after Bennie Eanes, president of the SCA, had announced her the 1955 M. H. S. Homecoming Queen. After the assembly, the annual M. H. S. homecoming parade began, including in it the band, cheerleaders, class floats, and the queen with her attendants, Miss Lou Pritchard and Miss Genie Marie Spencer.

Mr. Ralph Shank and the Mavahi band, with Drum Major Garland Terry and Majorettes Barbara Chaffin and Sue Byrd, substituting for Genie Marie Spencer, presented entertainment during the half-time ceremonies at the game when Donna Jean was crowned the 7th M. H. S. homecoming queen by principal John D. Richmond. On the lower left, the queen reigns over the game.

The second of the two big questions was answered when Mr. Willis Milton announced at half-time to the waiting spectators, "The Winner of the float contest is . . . the Freshman Class." On the upper middle is the winner, the freshmen's "Byrd in a Gilded Cage." Surrounding it are the floats that gave it competition: The seniors' "M. H. S.=D. D. T. for Byrd" on the upper right; the sophomores' "Spider Web" in the middle; the juniors' "Robot" on the lower right; and the eighth graders' "Old Mother Hubbard" on the lower middle.

As always, the homecoming dance followed the game. It was held in the cafeteria, the Melody Boys Band furnishing the music.

Thus another homecoming has gone at Mavahi, so alike, yet so different from the homecomings of the past—the same excitement, expectation, and spirit, only different students, players, and a new queen.

The Quill and Scroll is an international honorary society for high school journalists. These people must be active and capable members in their work on either the Barker or MAVAHI staff. Membership is granted to those journalists who achieve high scholastic standings and are recommended by the sponsors of the annual and newspaper staffs. This recommendation must be approved by the National Executive Secretary.

THESPIANS

The Thespians Society of M. H. S. is a troupe of the National Thespian Society and is an organization into which dramatic participants are invited. In order to be eligible to accept an invitation, a student must fulfill standards required by the National Thespian Society and the local troupe. This year the Thespians directed a series of one-act plays presented by the Dramatics Club.

Forty schools were represented in the 150-voice choir. On Sunday a concert was given in climax to a busy week end of rehearsals. The music in the concert varied from 16th Century Latin to works of modern composers.

Under the captaincy of Larry Deal and Jimmy Lancaster, the '55-56 Bulldogs cut their schedule down the middle. The Bulldogs wound up the season with a 10-10 record; however, Coach W. K. Putney still manipulated his charges into a tourney berth.

The strong Bulldogs of last year lost their five starters because of graduation. This year's team loses four graduating seniors from the starting lineup, leaving junior Jimmy Lancaster to travel the road of 20 games again next year. The seniors who will graduate are Rip Moser, Larry Deal, Ralph Nolen, Ronnie Hilbert, Wayne Riggan, and Jimmy Lusk.

This year the Bullpups won 15 out of 17 games. They lost to George Washington of Danville, and to Jefferson of Roanoke. Two juniors who were allowed to play Junior Varsity this year were Cletus Perdue and Gary Cassell. They and a few of the sophomores will aid the Bulldogs next year.

Varsity cheerleaders pose before a practice session.

The Cheerleaders . . .

The varsity cheerleaders, Donna Witt, Claudia Davis, Ann Minter, Lou Pritchard, Sylvia Finney, and Betty Marlowe, were selected by the student body last spring. With Donna as head cheerleader, the group practiced during the summer in preparation for the oncoming football and basketball seasons.

Sloshing through the mud at Covington and freezing at Radford were only a few of the difficulties experienced by the girls as they cheered the Bulldogs on. The annual football banquet, given in honor of the team and the cheerleaders, highlighted the football season. Later in the year, one of the senior cheerleaders, Ann Minter, reigned as queen over the Basketball Ball.

The Junior Varsity Cheerleaders were chosen by the student body, just as the varsity squad was. The cheerleaders, Bonnie Stone, Betsy Carper, Mary Garland LaPrade, Patsy Ramsey, Barbara Cotty and Kay Isley, elected Bonnie as their head cheerleader.

During the football season they had pep rallies at lunch on the front lawn; they cheered for the J. V. football team in the afternoon and at night; they helped organize the activities for Homecoming and were honored at the annual football banquet. In the month of December they participated in the Santa Claus Parade by distributing candy. During basketball season the J.V. and Varsity cheerleaders took turns cheering at the games.

The girls were accompanied on their out-of-town trips by one of the two sponsors, Miss Sue Smith and Miss Janice Booze.

Barbara Cotty, Mary Garland LaPrade, Patsy Ramsey, Bonnie Stone, Betsy Carper, and Kay Isley lead the JV's on to victory in an exciting game.

Basketball always holds an important part in any Physical Education Class. Girls' Field Hockey, new here this year, is fast becoming a favorite in the Girls' Physical Education Class.

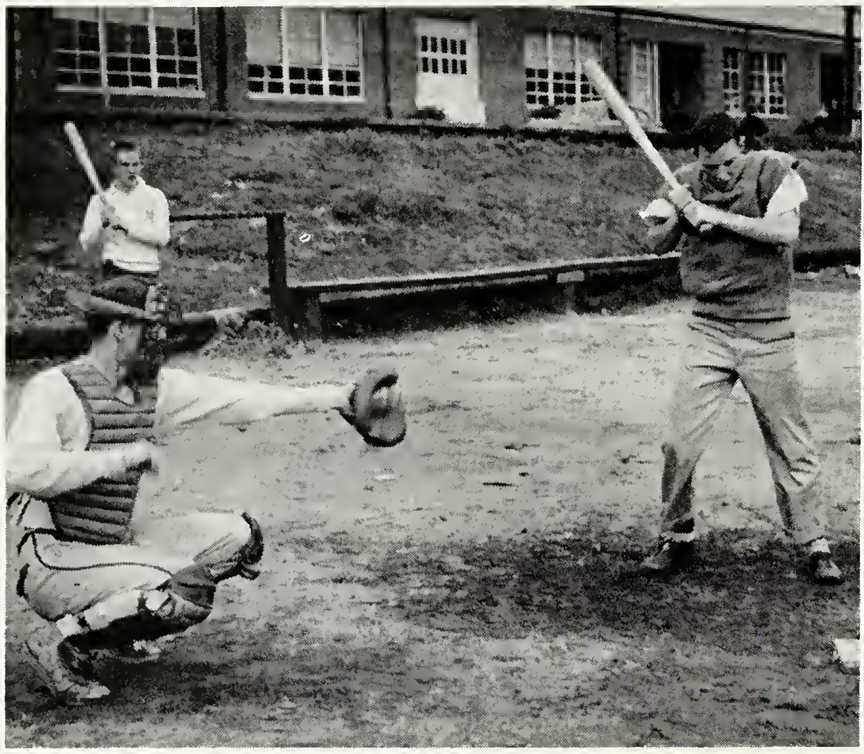
With spring came baseball and track.



Bulldogs in Practice

Game time for Bulldogs with Franklin

Last year baseball was de-emphasized and track was added to the spring extra-curricular activities at Mavahi.

Both teams practiced on Brown Street field in the afternoon.

The track team went to the District VI Track Meet. Rip Moser copped first and Ronnie Hilbert second in the broadjump. Rip also came in third in the 100-yard dash. The relay team, composed of Billy Randolph, Al Manson, Ken Engle, and Harold Jacobs, brought the fourth spot in the relay race back to M. H. S.

The baseball team last year had a very limited schedule of seven games. The members of the team were Irvin Painter, Jim Smith, Buck Wells, Jimmy Brigman, Al Manson, Tommy Pulliam, Tommy Draper, Jim Gregory, Jimmie Smith, Ronnie Minter, Cletus Perdue, Harry Stultz, Carl Eanes, Billy Kirk, Ralph Nolen, Curtis Wells, Billy Shockley, and Ronnie Harris, Manager.

MARTINSVILLE
BULLETIN

THE ANSWER

St. Francis of Assisi, hoeing his garden, was asked what he would do if he were suddenly to learn that he was to die at sunset.

He said, "I would finish hoeing my garden."

This seems to be good advice for all of the young graduates of 1956.

You may ask, "Why should I bother to go to college when an atom war could be just around the corner?"

"We can't be sure of anything," young people may say.

St. Francis put the answer in a simple metaphor: "Go on hoeing your garden." The task is still here—the house to build, the book to write, the examination to prepare for. If the future looks dark, so did it on the morning before the first Christmas. However dark it seems today, we shall meet life better if we have fulfilled the present to the best of our ability. Today is still ours, along with the obligation to live it to the fullest.

We believe you, the graduates of the Class of 1956, will go on "hoeing your garden".

Like leaves in the fall, we seniors must drift from the "Tree of Knowledge", taking with us not only the learning which we have acquired, but something much more valuable—a feeling of friendship and belonging. We leave a barren tree. But it will not long remain so, for this tree is immortal and will flourish again, nourishing other buds to the point of maturity and graduation.
